Party like it's 1920 at the Southwest Regional Library's Speakeasy event

Saturday, February 29, 7-9 p.m. • 9725 Dixie Highway

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (February 12, 2020) – Put on your swankiest glad rags and step back in time for some roaring 20s style fun at the Southwest Regional Library Speakeasy! LFPL is closing out our adult winter reading program, Books & Brews 502, with this adults-only after-hours event.

You are invited to slip through the side door for casino games, live music, and dance tutorials from Dance Louisville. The evening's festivities will also include mocktail demonstrations, a scavenger hunt, photo ops, DIY flapper headbands, and a costume contest—period attire strongly encouraged! Against the Grain will be serving up tasty brews for those 21+, and Heine Brothers will be on hand for coffee & tea.

Shh...It's a Speakeasy: Party Like It's 1920 is on Saturday, February 29, from 7-9 p.m. at the Southwest Regional Library (9725 Dixie Highway). You'll need the password to get into this juice joint, so call 502-933-0029 or go to LFPL.org/speakeasy to receive that information.
