Kentucky Shakespeare brings two-actor Hamlet to ten library locations in November and December

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (October 17, 2019) – The Louisville Free Public Library and Kentucky Shakespeare are once again partnering to bring free, family-friendly two-actor performances of Shakespeare classics to the Library. This year, two actors will bring Shakespeare’s most famous play to life, as Hamlet uncovers a web of deceit and corruption in his quest to avenge his father’s death. The audience will engage with professional actors from Kentucky Shakespeare in this fast-paced, one-hour production that highlights self-worth, relationship dynamics, the consequences of acting on vengeance, and finding help in times of isolation and vulnerability. This live performance will tour ten LFPL locations in November and December.

The tour, made possible through a grant from Metro Louisville, kicks off on Saturday, November 2 at the St. Matthews Library (2 p.m.). Ages six and up are welcome. The full schedule of performances is listed below and is also available at LFPL.org/KyShakespeare. #LFPLShakespeare
